Youth Advisory Council

The Youth Advisory Council was formed to raise youth awareness about Rockwall County and its rich history. The YAC is made up of students in Rockwall County, ages 5th – 12th grade. YAC meets on the first Saturday of each month at the 10:00 am in the Bailey House; 903 East Washington Street. If you or anyone you know is interested in participating, please contact Ty Phelps or Sarah Keeney at rockwallhistoryYAC@gmail.com

Thank you to SignMart for updating the outside Museum signs with the new hours and for also donating memorial signs for the memorial roses.

KUDOS to Garrett Carruth and Field of Greens for planting the memorial roses in the Bailey House bed for Ada Mooney and Leslie Barrett Jamgochian.

Member Renewal Time

Thank you to all our Members who have already renewed for the year! Those names are on the first page of this newsletter. If you have not yet renewed your Membership, please do so now in order to be included in the 2020 Member Directory. The Member renewal form is attached to this newsletter email or if you prefer, use this link: <https://rockwall-county-historical-foundation.square.site/> to renew online.

Membership funds are a major source of support for RCHF and we appreciate each and every Member.

Please join us in preserving Rockwall's rich history for future generations to enjoy!

SAVE THE DATE!

October 10, 2020 for “Brunch with Fine Minerals”. Jim and Gail Spann will host the second annual brunch for the Rockwall County Historical Foundation. Tickets will be offered closer to the event date. The Spans will offer a wonderful and delicious brunch along with a tour of their amazing mineral and gem collection totaling over 14,000 pieces. So put it on your calendar!

NOTICE: RCHF Events

Due to the situation we all find ourselves in, all RCHF planned events will be postponed until such time that State mandates are eased. We invite you to visit our website and our Facebook page for updates. Plans for a virtual tour of the Rockwall Art League's Exhibit in the Bailey House are now in progress and will soon be added to our website: www.rchfonline.org.
