Memorials

RCHF has recently lost two gentlemen who have made significant contributions to the Foundation's success.

Scott Self - Long-time Sponsor of the Tenant Cabin

Dick Clark - Vice President of Programs Board Member

They will be greatly missed.

Pretty Cotton Patch

Thanks to Shelly Spearman with the Texas A&M AgriLife Extension Service and her team of volunteers who planted and are watering the cotton patch project this year! Great job!

Youth Advisory Council

The 2020-2021 Youth Advisory Council had their first meeting of the new school year on 8/8/2020. The advisory currently has a High School and Middle School council group. Once we have enough Elementary members, those members will branch off into their own group. Goals for the year will be voted on by advisory members during their September meeting. Their mission is to help increase youth engagement and awareness for the Museum. If you or anyone you know is interested in participating, please contact Ty Phelps at rockwallhistoryYAC@gmail.com

Have you heard, this is an election year! From Sep. 1 through Sep. 30, a traveling exhibit from Humanities Texas, the state affiliate of the National Endowment of the Humanities will be displayed at the Bailey House. Entitled “The Blessings of Liberty: The U. S. Constitution” this timely exhibit will be enhanced by additional remarkable historical artifacts from the personal Presidential collection of Lorne and Mary Liechty. Signature items from George Washington, John Adams, Thomas Jefferson and Benjamin Franklin, among others, will be displayed. Students will have an opportunity to cast a vote for their favorite historic statesman. This exhibit is one of many historical exhibits available through Humanities Texas. Stay tuned for next year's line up!
